To Whom It May Concern:

I am happy to write this letter of recommendation for Caspar Rohleder.

Caspar was employed with our company from February 2008 until June 2008 as a full time graphic designer. During his employment with us, Caspar was responsible for a variety of graphic design tasks including t-shirt artwork, catalogue layout and producing various advertising materials.

Caspar was well respected by his co-workers. He was very organised and efficient, always enthusiastic with tasks that were given to him. Caspar's creativity and ability to take a concept and mould it into a finished product made him ideal in this type of role.

Caspar has done an excellent job and I would highly recommend him for a similar position in your company.

If you would like to discuss this further, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Claire Brown
